

Nepal, India: Flood and landslide

|                      |   |  |
|----------------------|---|--|
| Country and District | Nepal, India  | Nepal: 123 dead*India: 155 dead*           |
|                      | Nepal: Banke, Bardiya, Chitwan, Rautahat, Sarlahi, Udayapur, Dang Deukhuri, Rukum, Jajarkot, Morang, Sindhuli, Dhanusha and Siraha districts India: Uttar Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh, Bihar, Uttarakhand, and Assam states |  |
| Duration             | 13 Aug 2014-  | Nepal: 126 missingIndia: (unknown) missing |
| Outline              | Continuous monsoon rain since Aug. 13 caused floods and landslides across Nepal and also in northern India. 123 people in Nepal, and 155 in India were killed.  |  |

*Nepal: Reported on 25 Aug 2014

*India: Reported on 20 Aug 2014

Photo 1

Residents walking on the street inundated by the torrential rain in Banke, 351km west of the capital of Kathmandu (16 Aug 2014)

Source <http://www.afpbb.com/articles/-/3023298>

Photo 2

Nepalese rescuers search for bodies of victims of Saturday's landslide. (AP)

Source <http://ibnlive.in.com/news/nepal-floods-landslides-kill-240-people-india-announces-relief-fund-of-nrs-48-million/492502-2.html>

Photo 3

Officials in Nepal fear an outbreak of cholera, which commonly follows flooding as a water-borne infection. This family in Morigaon district of India's Assam state have nevertheless managed to find clean water.

Source <http://www.bbc.com/news/world-asia-28843086>