

Brazil: Drought

Country	Brazil	0 dead
and District	Southeastern part, especially in Sao Paulo, Minas Gerais, Rio de Janeiro
Duration	Dec 2013-	0 missing
Outline	The southeastern part of Brazil experienced the worst drought in 80 years. Reserves in the reservoir system that fell to record low affected lives of citizens, restricting water use. Agricultural produce is also damaged.

Photo 1

Images of Jaguari Reservoir in Brazil from NASA's Landsat 8 (Above: Aug 2013, before the occurrence of drought, below: Aug 2014)

Source http://www.nationalgeographic.co.jp/news/news\_article\_enlarge.php?file\_id=20141027003

Photo 2

An aerial view of the Atibainha dam, part of the Cantareira reservoir, during a drought in Nazare Paulista, Sao Paulo state November 18, 2014. REUTERS/Nacho Doce

Source <http://www.reuters.com/news/picture/2014/11/19/brazils-drought-from-above?articleId=USRTR4ERUT>

Photo 3

Workers of SABESP, Brazilian enterprise of Sao Paulo state that provides water and sewage services to residential, commercial and industrial areas, stand next to the Jaguari dam station, part of the Cantareira reservoir, during a drought in Braganca Paulista, Sao Paulo state November 18, 2014. REUTERS/Nacho Doce

Source <http://www.reuters.com/news/picture/2014/11/19/brazils-drought-from-above?articleId=USRTR4ERUT>