

Afghanistan: Flood

Country	Afghanistan	86 dead [※]
and District	Baghlan province
Duration	6 Jun 2014	(unknown) missing [※]
Outline	On 6 Jun, flash floods killed 86 people in Baghlan province, northeast Afghanistan. In Guzargah-e Nur district, 850 houses were completely destroyed and bridges and roads were damaged.

※Reported on 1 Jul 2014

Photo 1

Villagers recover the body of a victim of the floods in Baghlan. More than 50 are known to have died although some sources put the death toll as high as 100

Source <http://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-2651542/Flash-floods-Afghanistan-kill-50-force-thousands-flee-homes.html>

Photo 2

Afghan men wait for presidential candidate Abdullah Abdullah during his visit of the flood affected area in the Guzirga i-Nur district of Baghlan province, Afghanistan, Sunday, June 8, 2014. More than 80 bodies have been found after a devastating flash flood in Afghanistan's mountainous and remote north, a provincial official said Sunday, as police and villagers scoured the rugged terrain for missing people.

Source <http://www.sfgate.com/news/world/article/Death-toll-from-Afghan-flood-rises-to-81-killed-5536982.php#photo-6420807>

Photo 3

Local residents confirm the state of damage in Guzargah-e-Nur district, Baghlan province where landslides were triggered by flash floods.

Source <http://www.afpbb.com/articles/photo-slide/3017067?pno=3#/2>