

South Korea: Flood

Country and District	South Korea Busan, Changwon in South Gyeongsang, etc.	10 dead*
Duration	25 Aug 2014
Outline	As much as 130 mm of rain that fell in just 1 hour, in southeastern parts of the country, affected infrastructures, suspending subway service and blocking roads. The Gori-2 nuclear plant was manually shut down. Death toll was 10	(unkown) missing

*Reported on 28 Aug 2014

Photo 1

Cars floating in the streets of Busan.
Photo: Twitter

Source <http://floodlist.com/asia/nuclear-power-plant-shut-down-after-floods-south-korea>

Photo 2

Busan streets under water. Photo: Twitter

Source <http://floodlist.com/asia/nuclear-power-plant-shut-down-after-floods-south-korea>

Photo 3

Inundated Hwamyong Station, on 25 in Busan

Source <http://japanese.yonhapnews.co.kr/headline/2014/08/25/0200000000AJP20140825002600882.HTML>

Photo 4

Damaged road by the torrential rain in Buk-gu, Busan (26 Aug 2014)

Source http://app.yonhapnews.co.kr/YNA/Basic/ArticleJapan/new_ArticlePhoto/YIBW_new_showArticlePhotoView.aspx?contents_id=PYH20140826007100882

Photo 5

Busan Regional Meteorological Administration issued heavy rain advisory after 9:00 a.m. on 25. The underpass running along the Oncheon River, in Dongnae-gu, Busan was inundated and closed to traffic. (25 Aug 2014)

Source http://app.yonhapnews.co.kr/YNA/Basic/ArticleJapan/new_ArticlePhoto/YIBW_new_showArticlePhotoView.aspx?contents_id=PYH20140825031300882

Photo 6

Geumsa station of the Busan metro Line 4 was inundated due to the localized torrential rain and the train service was suspended. (25 Aug 2014)

Source http://app.yonhapnews.co.kr/YNA/Basic/ArticleJapan/new_ArticlePhoto/YIBW_new_showArticlePhotoView.aspx?contents_id=PYH20140826003800882