

India, Pakistan and Afghanistan Floods and Landslides

Most Affected Areas	India, Pakistan and Afghanistan India: Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat and Maharashtra Pakistan: Punjab, Baluchistan, Sindh and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Afghanistan: Herat, Nangarhar and Capital Kabul	Death Toll	135 India: 64 Pakistan: 55 Afghanistan: 16
Date of Occurrence	April 13, 2019	Missing	No data
Outline	A slow moving storm system brought dust, lightning and unseasonal heavy rain in South Asia. Many regions were affected by severe floods and landslides.

Affected Areas

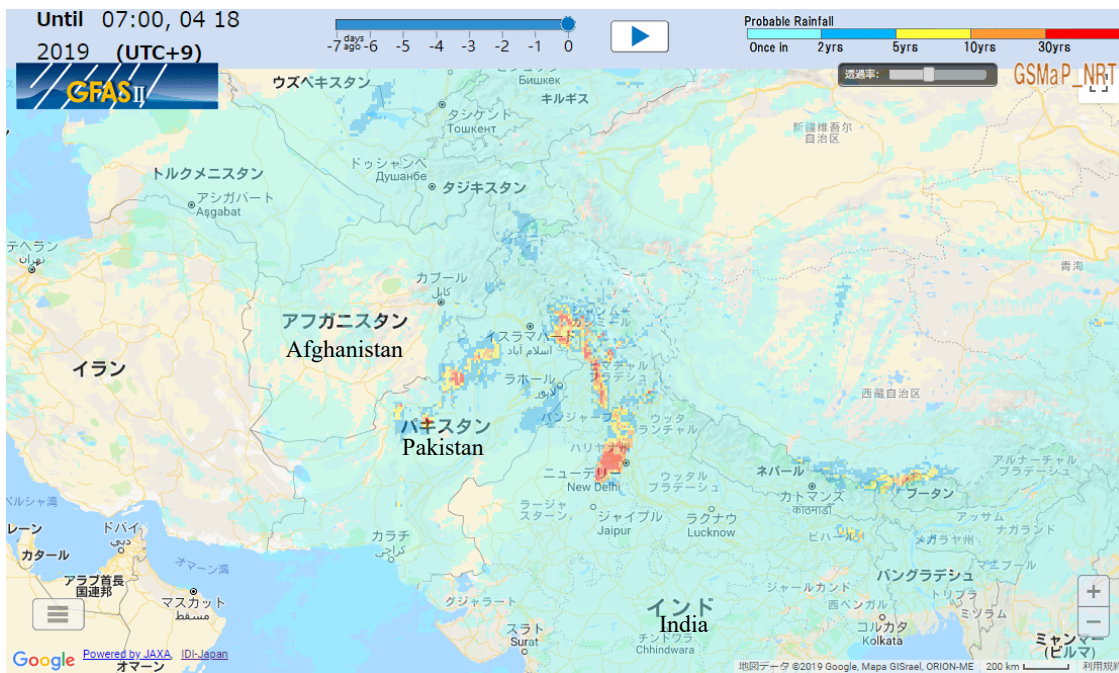

Map: https://d-maps.com/carte.php?num_car=32159&lang=en

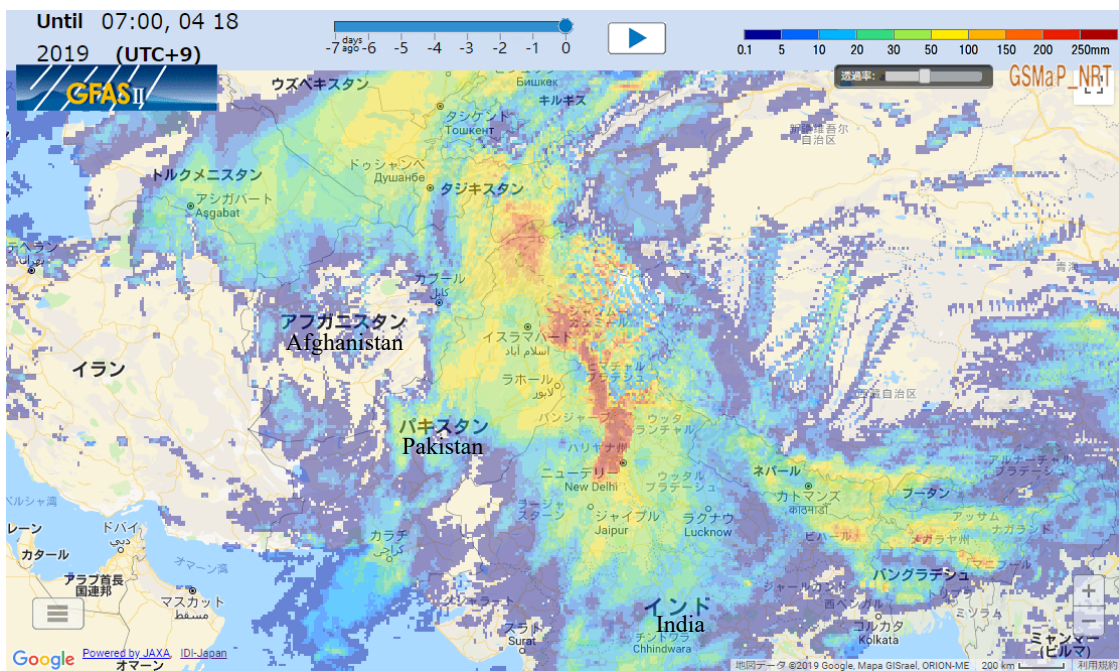

Precipitation Data from GFASII by IDI-Japan

GFASII website: <http://gfas.internationalfloodnetwork.org/n-gfas-web/PC/frmMain.aspx>

72 Hours Probable Rainfall (7:00am, April 15 to 7:00am, April 18, 2019 JST)

72 Hours Accumulated Rainfall (7:00am, April 15 to 7:00am, April 18, 2019 JST)

Rivers roaring in the city of Kabul, Afghanistan
April 16, 2019
(UNAMA News Twitter)

Source :

https://twitter.com/UNAMAnews?ref_src=twsrc%5Etfw%7Ctwcamp%5Etweetembed%7Ctwterm%5E1118068976435781632%7Ctwgr%5E363937393b70726f64756374696f6e&ref_url=https%3A%2F%2Fwatchers.news%2F2019%2F04%2F17%2Fwidespread-flooding-hit-afghanistan-again-at-least-5-dead-17-missing%2F

